FIRE DISTURBS FUNERAL SERVICE,

Blaze Discovered in Belleville Lack of Clews Baffle Those Hunt-Home While Mourners Are Gathered at Bier.

Fire was discovered in the Langston home on West Main street, Belleville, while the family and friends stood about the bler of Goldie Langston, daughter of Ralph Langs-

A minister was about to begin the funeral service, when the alarm was given br a passer-by. No panie resulted, but the minister did not proceed with the services, and the mourners remained in the room while the pallbearers gathered around the casintending to carry it out should the blaze prove serious.

The flames were first seen upon the roof, and were due to a defective flue. The fire department was summoned and reached the scene before the fire had made material progress. The mourners and palibearers still in the house, a stream was directed upon the flames. They were soon extinguished, and the damage was slight.

Then the last rites were performed. The funerel cortege was formed and filed away to the property of the constant. to the cemetery

FOR BETTER SIDEWALKS.

Street Inspector Puderer Institutes War on Property Owners. Street Inspector Puderer of Belleville has instituted a war on property owners who refuse to lay sidewalks in front of their premises inside the City Limits. A large number of these cases now exist in Belleville, and after much deliberation Mr. Puderer has come to the conclusion that sidewalks must be laid, and that if the property owners do not lay them that he will have them laid and charge the property owners for the work.

Yesterday Mr. Puderer sent out a number of notifications to property owners to the effect that sidewalks will have to be laid everywhere inside the City Limits, and that if the property owners do not have this work done that the city will have it done and charge for it. Mr. Puderer claims that the city has a right to demand that sidewalks, ball and that his course is uncheld walks be laid, and that his course is upheld by the city authorities.

Were Not Superstitious.

"Friday has no terrors for us," declared Miss Stella Hennell of St. Louis as License Clerk McConaughte issued a license for Joseph Craft and Miss Hennell. The couple seemed very anxious to get married as quickly as possible, and Mr. McConaughte referred to the fact that the day was Friday. Buth made affidicities that they were referred to the lact that they were day. Both made affidavits that they were of local age, and a short while later Justice Wangelin married them. They departed mediately for St. Louis.

Discussed the City's Suit. TRI-CITIES.

Thursday evening was run down and killed by a Chicago and Alton switch engine as he was crossing the railway tracks on Ferry street.

The tender of the locomotive, which had approached anobserved, struck Boerkel and threw him several yards in advance of the engine. Before the locomotive could be brought to a stop, the wheels of the tender passed over him and crushed out his life.

A Coroner's jury yesterday rendered a verdict holding the Chicago and Alton Railway responsible for Boerkel's death, which, it is alleged, was due to the carelessness of the railway company's employes and the company's failure to kep a watchman at the Ferry street crossing.

Boerkel was 65 years old, and for twenty years had been a resident of Venice. At the time of his death he was police magistrate, having been elected to the position two years ago. he was crossing the rallway tracks on trate, having occurrences two years ago.

Justice Boerkel was the father of twentyone children, seven of whom and his second wife survive him.

JERSEYVILLE.

PAYS WELL FOR HIS BOARD. Thomas Shearin Will Give Mrs. Collins Half of His Property. An unusual agreement was filed for record in the office of the Circuit Clerk at Jerseyville yesterday. The parties interested are Thomas Shearin and Mrs. Ellen Collins, wife of Patrick Collins of Fidelity. Shearin is a wealthy farmer of Fidelity, and in the contract he agrees 'to give Mrs. Collins one-half of his property, both real and personal, if she boards him and takes care of him until death.'

The agreement was made before County Clerk J. C. McGrath, and acknowledged and filled in the office of Circuit Clerk Laurant. Shearin owns 229 acres of land at Fidelity. In addition to considerable personal holdings. Another stipulation of the agreement to which Mrs. Collins and her husband have already comflied is that they shall take up their residence on the Shearin farm, and that during the owner's life shall also receive half the profits from its cultivation.

Shear n is a bachelor, and until the death of his brother, John Shearin, who was also a bachelor, lived with him on the Shearin estate.
